

Celebrated Players Film Co.

Louis M. Selig, Pres.
S. M. Frankland, Director

See our Latest Releases

The Birth of Chicago Lodge
Scenario by Sylvanus George Levy

Produced by Hamilton Coleman

The Drunkard's Spree

In Six Reels

The Last Word

(Continuous Performance)

An adaptation of "Every woman"

The Castles are Coming.

WE are the boys who buy. No, not drinks or cigars. We are department store buyers. We tell the poor boob who comes to sell us that we don't need anything. What we don't know about merchandise would fill a book but we are paid to look wise.

Charles Metz
Sidney Lebolt
Charles Mayer
Morris Henry Dreyer

Nate Neumann
Jake Baach
Abe Kahnweiler
A. Woythall

Alfred Hamburger Theatrical Enterprises

Alfred Hamburger, Pres.

Samuel Mitchell Frankland, General Manager, Treasurer, Secretary, Chairman Board of Directors, Book-keeper, Stenographer, Office Boy, Telephone Operator, Cashier. Outside of that Sammy doesn't do anything.

Our Motto—"Let Sam do it"

Note Alfred's size as compared to Sammy's

Let me probate your will. Never a kick from any of the deceased. Put on all the heirs you want.

Judge Horner

Try our green taxis. Oh, Shaw, you say. That's us.

Benjamin E. Wolff

Our Village Cut-Ups

Jos. Carl Beck Victor S. Frankenstein
David M. Olkon Max A. Weisskopf
E. A. Boas O. G. Fisher
L. E. Gordon

Broilers, squabs, hens, stopf gaense. Hen fruit, ripe and unripe. Get our goat and try our butter.

Louis Aaron Isadore Cohen
Joseph Loeb Meyer Eichengreen

We horned into Horner's. Our grocery business is gross. Our success lies in "cans."

Henry Lewis Harry Horner

My business is for sleepers. Going to the Fair? If you are on your uppers try one of ours. Save ten per cent.

Adolph H. Reese
V. P. Pullman Co.